Seven new retailers have announced plans to open at CityNorth, a 144-acre urban community being developed at 56th Street and Deer Valley Drive in north Phoenix.

They are:

- Pioneer Stores USA, which will sell high-end consumer electronics.
- Bebe, women's contemporary apparel and accessories.
- Bobby Chan, a men's and women's apparel shop that focuses on luxury and comfort.
- LensCrafters, expected to carry high-end fashion brands like Prada, Versace and Chanel.
- Mojo Yogurt, a self-serve yogurt shop that offers organic toppings.
- Press Coffee Food Wine, a bistro that educates customers about coffee and other products.
- Saito's Japanese Steak House, will have sushi and vegetarian items in addition to offerings by Hibachi chefs.

The stores and restaurants will be part of the project's first phase, CityCenter of CityNorth, which is scheduled to open Nov. 13.
